

EXTRAORDINARY VENUE SPACES

Postal
Museum

The 100 year old Mail Rail tunnels lie
70ft beneath the streets of London

Would you like to hold your event in a unique subterranean space, combined with a once in a lifetime opportunity to ride through the deserted 'Mail Rail' tunnels?

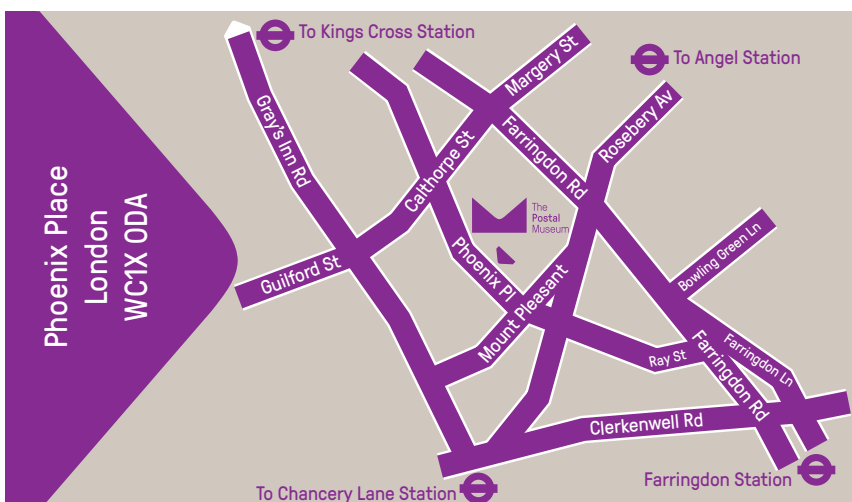

Perhaps, you'd prefer our contemporary museum space with the added benefit of a sunny courtyard?

Located a stone's throw from Farringdon Station and bordering trendy Exmouth Market, the impressive new event spaces at The Postal Museum and Mail Rail have a capacity of up to 275 people and will be available to hire for unique and experiential events.

Highly adaptable, the space was recently converted into a tennis court for Andy and Jamie Murray's secret pre-Wimbledon warm-up.

It can be used for:

- ▶ Dinners, parties and receptions
- ▶ Product launches and award ceremonies
- ▶ Networking and breakfast briefings
- ▶ Fashion shows
- ▶ Filming and photography
