GETTING TO THE POSTAL MUSEUM

If you would like a Walking Trail Map for each nearby station, then please visit postalmuseum.org/visit/plan-your-visit/getting-here to download as PDFs.

The Postal Museum

15-20 Phoenix Place
London, WC1X 0DA

Please note that The Postal Museum is split across two sites – The Postal Museum and Mail Rail – separated by a road with a zebra crossing. Please take care when crossing the road.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

If you are travelling by public transport, use TfL Journey Planner to plan your route and check for up-to-date information about travel delays that may affect your journey.

Chancery Lane, Farringdon, King's Cross and Russell Square Underground stations are all located 10-20 minutes on foot away from The Postal Museum.

The nearest bus stops are located on Gray's Inn Road (17, 45, 46), Farringdon Road (63, 748) and Rosebery Avenue (19, 38, 341).

Farringdon and King's Cross St. Pancras are the closest mainline stations.

COACHES

The Museum is located within the London Congestion Charge Zone (see TfL website for more details).

There is no parking available at The Postal Museum and groups are expected to arrange drop-off and collection points with their coach operators.

Coaches can stop outside The Postal Museum as long as the driver remains onboard at all times.

For further directions please search Google Maps using The Postal Museum post code.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

ARRIVAL

Upon arrival, please make yourself known to a member of staff in The Postal Museum welcome space.

Your tickets will be checked so that your self-led group can move freely around The Postal Museum and Mail Rail. We advise that you bring a register and any precautionary medications.

MAIL RAIL RIDE

If your group has been allocated more than one Mail Rail Ride slot, the group leader should split the whole group into smaller groups to visit the Exhibitions and Mail Rail to ensure a comfortable visit for all visitors. Each smaller group must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Groups are expected to be in the Mail Rail Depot area 10 minutes before their scheduled Mail Rail Ride slot.

GROUP LEADERS

It is the responsibility of the group leader to ensure that all responsible adults know the schedule for their visit. Please brief your groups of children about the Code of Conduct and rules for Mail Rail and Sorted! We cannot change the allocated time for Mail Rail rides or Sorted! Unused tickets due to lateness are non-refundable.

The Postal Museum staff are happy to answer any questions your group might have so that they can make the most of the time spent in our exhibition galleries.

GROUP NUMBERS

Please note that if you have extra group members (other than the amount you have paid for) turn up on the day, they will not be able to obtain the Youth/Youth educational group rate and will have to pay for full price tickets. These members will also have to adhere to the adult: child ratios as below:

Adult to child ratios

1 : 3	FDN (2 - 5yrs)
1 : 4	KS1 (5 - 7yrs)
1 : 6	KS2 (7 - 11yrs)
1 : 10	KS3 (11 - 14yrs)
1 : 15	KS4+ (14+)

CATERING

We're pleased to now be able to offer food and drink packages at The Counter, our on-site café, as part of your group visit. We can cater for up to 40 people for Elevenses, Lunch or Afternoon Tea depending on your visit time. Payment is required at the point of booking and final orders must be received no later than 72 hours in advance of your visit date. If you would like to add Catering to your Group Booking or make any changes to your current Catering selections - please contact the Box Office on Groups@postalmuseum.org.

Already ordered your catering? Please select what you would like from our menu using this form here. Orders must be confirmed up to 72 hours before your visit.

13. Any damage or accidents must be reported to Museum staff immediately.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Please make sure ALL members of your group read this information BEFORE the day of your visit.

ABOUT THE MAIL RAIL RIDE

The Mail Rail ride lasts approximately 15 minutes and is an immersive underground experience. The ride contains moments of pitch darkness and some loud noises and flashing lights. The ride takes a loop under Mount Pleasant (roughly 1.2 km) through tunnels that are only 7ft (213cm) wide at their narrowest point. The ride is narrated by a Mail Rail engineer and the train stops at two station platforms where films about the history of Mail Rail are projected onto the walls. At one point the ride simulates a power cut. This is brief but it may be worth warning everyone in your group.

ACCESSIBILITY

Due to the historic nature of the Mail Rail and to ensure the safety of all our guests, access to the ride is restricted. All visitors boarding the train must be able to transfer themselves in and out of the train unaided. In the event of an emergency evacuation all visitors must be able to walk unaided on uneven terrain, in a confined space and with low lighting levels for approximately 100 metres, before climbing 70 steps to the surface. Due to the size constrictions of the ride, no wheelchairs or walking aids can be accommodated in the carriages and must be left in the cages provided before boarding the train.

Due to the size of the tunnels, the train carriages are small and may be uncomfortable/unsuitable for visitors who are claustrophobic. Train dimensions are as follows:

- Carriages are 130cm high
- Bench seating is 80cm wide
- Seat to overhead canopy is 87cm
- Distance between seats is 43cm

The Mail Rail ride contains features such as loud noises and flashing lights which may be unsuitable for those with pre-existing conditions that could be made worse by these features.

ACCESSIBLE MAIL RAIL SHOW

An Accessible Mail Rail Show is available in Mail Rail for visitors who cannot/do not wish to ride the train. This features footage showing the journey through the tunnels, excerpts from the audio soundtrack, and the full-length films from the station platforms.

MAIL RAIL RULES

	Dividing your group If your group is allocated more than one ride, divide your group into arranged smaller groups in advance. Each train accommodates approximately 20 people. Your booking confirmation will tell you how many seats are allocated to your group and the train times. Please note that depending on the size of your group, members of the public might be on the trains allocated to your group.
	Mail Rail Ride departure slot Please arrive at any time within your hourly slot to queue and board the train. We recommend arriving at least 20 minutes before the end of your slot to guarantee a ride within that hour.
	Loose articles on the train Due to size constrictions and in order to ensure the safety of all guests, no loose articles are allowed on the train, including bags of any size including handbags and walking aids. All loose articles must be deposited in the cages provided prior to boarding. Cages are attended but are not locked. Alternatively, personal items can be left in the lockers located in the welcome space.
	Children Children under the age of 12 must be accompanied on the train by an adult. Please refer to our Adult:Child ratios.
	Boarding the train A member of staff will show you where to deposit your personal belongings and to sit. It is very important that you follow their instructions. The train will only depart when said member of staff is happy with the seating arrangements.
	Canopies A member of staff will close the overhead canopies at the beginning of the ride and will will open them for you to alight the train safely at the end of the ride – please do not attempt to open them yourself.

We recommend you divide your group into five or six small groups with an accompanying adult. Adults can direct play by circulating each group between the themed areas.

Under 3's area

Role play behind the Post Office counter and design a mini town with magnets and building blocks.

Mini Neighbourhood

Explore a mini neighbourhood, open doors to collect and deliver letters, drive a vintage post van and make a call in a red telephone box.

The Post Office

Get dressed for the job and help customers to weigh and stamp parcels. Write a telegram, and sort letters into pigeon holes ready to be posted.

Reading corner

From classics like The Jolly Postman to current storybook favourites, delve into stories about delivering the post.

The Sorting Office (large enough for two groups)

Over two floors, sort and scan letters and parcels on conveyor belts and use trolleys, pulleys and slides and chutes to move the mail.

RULES OF PLAY

- You must supervise children at all times. Divide your whole group into smaller groups.
- Encourage children to respect others, play safely and take it in turns.
- Use the seating area for children to calm down or have a drink of water.
- Shoes must be worn at all times. Help children to use dressing up as needed.
- First Aid equipment is available. Group leaders are responsible for administering minor first aid.
- All accidents must be reported to the member of staff.
- There are two toilets in Sorted! take children as needed to avoid a queue at the end of the session.

RISK ASSESSMENTS

RISK ASSESSMENTS

The highlighted risks are for a standard group visit. Special events in the museum may have individual risks and groups will be briefed about them in advance. New risks that arise on the day of your visit will be highlighted in your Welcome Briefing.
