

Visitor Experience Host

In 2017, The Postal Museum opened a new heritage attraction in Central London, with two experiences in one. Alongside the story of British social and communications history, we offer a subterranean ride on the old Post Office Underground Railway – Mail Rail. We bring five centuries of extraordinary communications history to life as seen through the eyes of the iconic postal service. We aim to inspire everyone to make richer and more meaningful connections in their lives through our activities at the museum and online. The Postal Museum has welcomed over 180,000 visitors in its first year and represents a significant addition to London's cultural landscape.

Based: Central London

Salary: £11,20 per hour for casual contracts

Contracts available: Casual contracts available

Start date: December 2022

Reports to: Visitor Experience Manager

Please note: Candidates must be available to attend an assessment day to be considered.

PURPOSE OF THE JOB

As a Host you will fulfil an important role as a member of the Visitor Experience Team working alongside Driver Operators, Team Leaders and Visitor Experience Managers to deliver a market leading visitor experience and to maximise visitor enjoyment by maintaining excellent customer service levels.

You will be proactive in approaching visitors as you will spend most of your time on your feet supporting the visitor experience. Please note that this may be for an extended period of time. The daily tasks will vary, ranging from: admissions (selling and checking tickets), retail sales, engaging with the visitors in the galleries and helping people onto the train, managing queues and looking after Sorted!, the family zone.

We are currently operating reduced opening days on a 5 day a week operation Wednesday to Sunday. There may be potential to increase contracts when we revert to longer operational hours. As part of their working pattern, Hosts will be expected to work most weekends, bank holidays and early/late events per the needs of the business. Post holders will be expected to be flexible to the reactive needs of the Postal Museum. Working hours are subject to change as required. Shifts will be either 4 hours long (relief) or a 7.5 hours long (full day).

As employee of The Postal Museum you will enjoy a wide range of benefits, including – but not limited to – a cycle to work scheme and interest free season ticket loan.

OTHER WORKING CONDITIONS

Hosts are expected to wear a uniform at all times along with a name badge, radio & ear piece and security pass whenever on duty. The uniform will be provided by the Museum.

Hosts will be expected to work across all areas within the sites, including in the shop, ticketing and admissions, Mail Rail, Sorted! The Postal Play Space as well as the galleries. The Hosts will also be expected to roam the space they work within, without adopting a stationary position and proactive in approaching visitors. It should be noted that standing can sometimes be for extended periods of time and seating is not provided whilst working on the galleries. In addition, working in Mail Rail will include working below ground level including tunnels.

The post holder is expected to monitor and report on their work as directed by their line manager and adhere to set guidelines on security, health and safety, lone working, as advised and taking responsibility for those as appropriate.

Responsibility for public safety is central to this role. Applicants should be willing to undergo an accredited training course for First Aid and other Health & Safety related skills if they are not currently qualified.

This position requires a DBS check which will reveal any unspent convictions. A criminal record may not necessarily be a bar to placement, as any decision will be treated on its merits and individual circumstances subject to the museum's overriding obligations to protect the children and vulnerable adults in its charge, members of the public, the safety of the museum's staff and the Collection.

HOW TO APPLY
