

Sorting Office Maths Challenge

Card Sort: What happens when you send a letter?

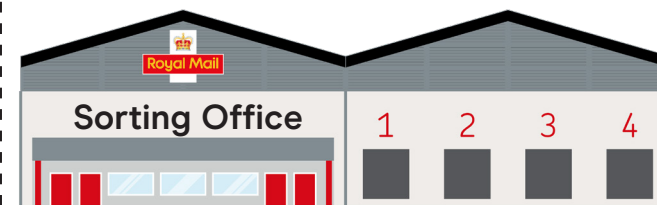

Cut out, mix up and arrange into the correct order!

First, the letter is put into a post box.

Next, the post is collected up and driven to the nearest sorting office.

In the sorting office the mail is sorted into groups.

Then, the groups of mail are transported to the correct delivery offices.

In the delivery office mail is put into the delivery order.

Finally, the mail is ready for delivery.
